Erode Cancer Observes International Nurses Day 2025 with Dedication and Pride

Erode Cancer Centre commemorated International Nurses Day 2025 with a series of meaningful events that highlighted the dedication, compassion, and professionalism of its nursing staff. This year's celebration paid tribute to the legacy of Florence Nightingale and underscored the vital role of nurses in the healthcare system. "The day began with a Peaceful awareness Rally in and around the Erode Cancer Centre campus, where nurses, doctors, and staff participated enthusiastically. Dressed in their professional attire, the nurses carried placards displaying motivational quotes and images of Florence Nightingale, spreading awareness among the public about the importance of the nursing profession. "Inside the hospital, a solemn Candle lighting Ceremony was held, symbolizing the spirit of service and commitment to patient care. Nurses took the Nightingale Pledge, reaffirming their ethical responsibility and dedication to their patients. "The hospital management extended their heartfelt appreciation to the nursing staff for their relentless service, especially in oncology care. The celebration was marked with unity, gratitude, and a renewed commitment to upholding the values of nursing. "Erode Cancer Centre takes immense pride in its nursing team and continues to support their professional development and well-being."
